

Top section showing tilted terminal block and labyrinth cable strain relief to ease installation.

Due to its horizontal lamping and compact integrated housing, the depth of the Mirage MD20 is just 112mm. This allows it to be sited in ceiling voids otherwise considered too restrictive for fluorescent downlighters.