

Sony Centre

MOTIVATION

Believed to be the largest building project in Europe, the Sony Centre in Potsdamer Platz, Berlin, was an opportunity for Whitecroft Lighting to demonstrate its ability to work in close harmony with international Architects, Lighting Designers and Developers. This vast project was a challenge to our design skills and project management. A variety of customised and catalogue lighting products have been employed throughout the eight-building complex.

APPLICATION

- Commercial offices
- Residential
- Leisure complex
- Retail
- Restaurants
- Car parking

SPECIFICATION

- Special Office fixture:
 - Lighting the offices
 - 1 x 39W T5 recessed fixture in metal ceiling
 - Specular aluminium louvre complying to DIN5035 requirements
 - Quantity supplied 5100
- Special Merlin™ for offices:
 - Direct/indirect suspended fixture for office lighting
 - Downward light with 54W T5 upward light via 2 x 28W T5 lamps
 - Quantity supplied 1000
- Blind fixture fixed to the window blind:
 - Extruded aluminium tube with reeded diffuser
 - Supplied in 24W, 28W, 39W T5 lamp types
 - Luminaire supported by fixing brackets to the blind or supported by suspended rods
 - Quantity supplied 6000
- Corridors with Mirage downlighters:
 - Supplied with suspended glass
 - 2 x 18W MD24 and 1 x 18W MD20
 - Quantity supplied 2800
- Elevator lobby fixture:
 - Special suspended glass fixture
 - Lamp type 2 x 28W T5
 - Semi-specular louvre for low brightness
 - Glass panel under the fixture suspended by rods
 - Quantity supplied 220
- Car park with Duralite:
 - With acrylic diffuser
 - Quantity supplied 4600
- Corridors with Centurion 265:
 - Smooth design
 - 1 x 26W TC-D
 - Silver finish
 - Quantity supplied 150

REDIRECTION

Mirage range of downlighters see p130-139

