

Prudential

MOTIVATION

Aerofoil is a direct/indirect luminaire originally designed to illuminate an intensely occupied open plan space and to complement the architecture of the refurbished headquarters building for the Prudential in Central London.

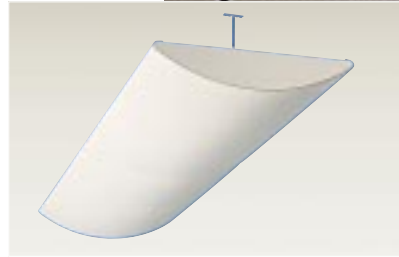

APPLICATION

- Large open plan interiors
- Commercial offices
- Conference centres
- Meeting halls
- Air, rail, and bus concourses

SPECIFICATION

- Individual or continuous mounting
- Micro-perforated sheet steel available in two widths
- Radiused end caps/formers in cast alloy
- Mains wiring carried within system
- Double skin eliminates lamp image
- Compliance with CIBSE LG3 recommendations
- Hinged drop rods
- Control gear in removable cassette
- Electrical connection by plug and socket
- High frequency control gear

This non standard product is available on a minimum quantity basis. Please contact Whitecroft Lighting's Customer Services Department for further information.

Aerofoil

